

Professional Development Creative Child (Gr. Staff)

(12/60 Min.) (Purchase - $64.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY Produced by Mississippi Public Broadcasting, this in service training for teachers of preschool and early elementary students offers simple methods to develop creativity using inexpensive materials found in everyday activities. Students from mid-Mississippi schools and daycare centers have fun while developing a sound foundation for future creative endeavors. 101 Introduction 102 Free Expression, Child Directed Activities 103 No Cost, On A Shoestring budget 104 Creative Construction #1 105 Creative Construction #2 106 Extra Materials 107 Visual 108 Imaging 109 Emotions 110 Creative Movement 111 Verbalization/Communication 112 Overview

David's Legacy: TV Cart Safety 141 Mississippi Public Broadcasting Instructional Programming 2006-2007 (Gr. Staff) (1/15 Min.) (Purchase - $16.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY David's Legacy: TV Cart Safety is designed to help prevent deaths in classrooms, libraries and school halls that result from accidents involving tall TV/AV carts. The program tells the true story of David, an elementary student, who is sent to the library to get the TV set and is killed when it falls on him. David's parents, his teacher and his principal are interviewed. Earth-to-Space Science Resources (Gr. Staff) (4/58 Min.) (Purchase - $32.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY From rockets to water cycles, from colors of light to the surface of Mars, these program modules offer middle grade educators an opportunity to meet specific science standards and suggest "best practices" in utilizing resources that are presented. 1. Aeronautics-The Rockets' Red Glare 2. Oceanography-Our Water Planet 3. Remote Sensing-From a Distance 4. Astronomy-A Place in Science Implementing the National Geography Education Standards in Grades K-12 (Gr. Staff) (4/90 Min.) (Purchase - $48.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY This series focuses on the voluntary Geography Standards that were finalized in early 1996. This guide has eighteen content standard areas that encourage the development of curriculum and instruction.

Oooh's! and Aaah's! of Science (Gr. Staff) (4/90 Min.) (Purchase - $48.00) (Rights - Unlimited) 142 Mississippi Public Broadcasting Instructional Programming 2006-2007 NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY Nationally recognized trainer/teacher Lillie Tucker-Akin hosts this series with special guests whose expertise and knowledge of science is both fun and informative. Oooh's! and Aaah's! of Science II (Gr. Staff) (6/60 Min.) (Purchase - $48.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY Hosted by Lillie Tucker-Akin and guests, the TI-83 Graphing Calculator and its applications in science are featured in the first two programs. The series will engage the teacher in using exploration and experimentation to integrate science application into the daily classroom. The other four programs include Carolina Biological, Jackson State University, Hawaii Science Teachers, and Famon Roberts of NSTA. PT3 Now! (Gr. Staff) (8/30 Min.) (Purchase - $32.00) (Rights - School Year) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY No Correlation to the Frameworks PT3 Now! Looks at the issues, ideas and strategies of how schools of education are retooling their teacher preparation programs. Each show includes segments highlighting innovative programs, K-12 classroom examples, and critical analysis in the studio with experts. 1. Overview of a Statewide System 2. GLOBE 3. GIS 4. Field

Placement - Ole Miss 5. Teaching Content with Technology 6. Methods to Classroom 7. Observation from a Distance 8. A New Kind of Quest 143 Mississippi Public Broadcasting Instructional Programming 2006-2007 Reading and Writing: The Basics to Build a Successful Curriculum for K-3 Teachers (Gr. Staff) (4/90 Min.) (Purchase - $64.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY These four programs take some of the guess work out of early literacy development and the teaching of reading and writing skills for K-3 teachers. 1. Creating A Literacy Centered Classroom 2. Nurturing Young Readers 3. The Write Stuff/Children as Writers 4. Literacy Strategies for the Classroom

The TI-89 Graphing Calculator...Can It Really Do All That? (Gr. Staff) (4/60 Min.) (Purchase - $32.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY Instructor Vickie Shirley, of Corinth High School, hosts this four part series on the TI-89 Graphing Calculator. 1. TI-Graphing Calculator Workshop 2. Continuation of Program 1 3. Continuation of Program 1 4. Continuation of Program 1 Utilizing Technology in Teaching Visual Arts and Music (Gr. Staff) (6/60 Min.) (Purchase - $48.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY The content includes assessment strategies and utilization of technology for the study, design, composition, and performance of the visual arts and music. 144 Mississippi Public Broadcasting Instructional Programming 2006-2007 Your Choice...Our Chance (Staff) (Gr. Staff) (3/30 Min.) (Purchase - $48.00) (Rights - Unlimited) NO BLOCK FEED - PURCHASE ONLY This series accompanies the ten student programs in the Your Choice... Our Chance drug abuse prevention series. To be successful in preventing drug abuse, a school program must be supported by the families of the children that attend it and by the community at large. This component is designed to help parents, community leaders and all concerned adults find ways to make their communities healthy and competent. 1. Community Assessment and Action 2. Family Interaction and Communication 3. School Programs and Environment
